make sense of your loss.

Kingston Bereavement Support

We provide a counselling service to children, young people and adults who live, work, study or are registered with a GP in Kingston upon Thames who have been bereaved

"It was my first experience of counselling. I found it unbelievably helpful. I would recommend KBS unreservedly as the outcomes for me have been life changing."

Client testimonial

Kingston Bereavement Support (KBS) is the only bereavement service in Kingston Upon Thames. We are a registered charity and an organisational member of Child Bereavement UK and the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP), whose code of ethics we adhere to.

We have two services; the Adult Service for eighteen years and upwards and the children and young people's service, 'The Saying Goodbye Project' for four years and upwards.

The key aim of both services is to deliver high quality, specialist bereavement counselling for the community of Kingston upon Thames, with equal access to all who need it. We welcome and respect people from all backgrounds and cultures.

We have close and long-standing relationships with GPs, local schools, children's services as well as other professional and voluntary sector organisations throughout the Borough; this enables us to reach the most disadvantaged and vulnerable young people who can benefit from the support we offer.
